

Artist's Statement on "Maya's Veil"

I've always wanted to make portraits to explore the unseen within the human face as a way to become intimate with qualities of a person's character that lie beneath the surface. The internal struggles, the dualities between revealing & concealing one's true self.
