

Artist's Statement on "Labyrinth"

The labyrinthine forms weave through echoing the intricate pathways of human existence in the entanglements of fate and the scars left by time. Created in the wake of the COVID-19 crisis this piece speaks of a world grappling with loss yet holding onto hope. The hand reaches, resists, and endures—just as we do.
