Vogue India
April 3, 2025

VOGUE
INDIA

Untamed Heart by Laila Khan Furniturewalla at Snowball Studios, Mumbai and Gallery Art & Soul, Mumbai

"Wish You Were Here"

After a hiatus of 18 years, artist Laila Khan Furniturewalla makes a powerful return with Untamed Heart, a deeply personal solo exhibition dedicated to her parents Sundri and the late superstar Feroz Khan, whose creative influences continue to shape her work. Using materials like sand, gold leaf, copper, pigment and acrylic in abstract compositions that explore spiritual themes and the balance of tradition and innovation, she delves into the complexities of identity, emotion and memory, capturing what lies beneath. Speaking about the exhibit, Furniturewalla shares, "My forthcoming solo exhibition is a culmination of my

VOGUE
INDIA

SUBSCRIBE

After a hiatus of 18 years, artist Laila Khan Furniturewalla makes a powerful return with Untamed Heart, a deeply personal solo exhibition dedicated to her parents Sundri and the late superstar Feroz Khan, whose creative influences continue to shape her work. Using materials like sand, gold leaf, copper, pigment and acrylic in abstract compositions that explore spiritual themes and the balance of tradition and innovation, she delves into the complexities of identity, emotion and memory, capturing what lies beneath. Speaking about the exhibit, Furniturewalla shares, "My forthcoming solo exhibition is a culmination of my journey as an artist. The works are highly personal and emotive, and embody my search for the mystical and divine without boundaries and definition."

On view at Snowball Studios, Worli, on 5th and 6th April, and Gallery Art & Soul, Worli, from 16th to 22nd April, 2025

vogue.in